Letter of Undertaking

It is essential that the documents requested by our institution from prospective students be submitted truthfully, accurately, completely, and completely during registration for all of our university's associate, undergraduate, graduate, vocational, continuing education centers, and all other educational units. The university has no liability whatsoever for the documents submitted by prospective students. Prospective students acknowledge and agree that they are aware that the content of the documents submitted is accurate and truthful, and that they assume full responsibility for any discrepancies.

If it is detected or learned from the competent authorities that the candidate student has submitted misleading documents, forged documents, incomplete documents, discrepancies between documents and declarations, false and misleading statements, deliberately concealed information and documents, or has submitted/concealed information and documents that may constitute a crime or be the subject of a crime according to the provisions of the legislation in force, including but not limited to the above, in order to enroll in the institution, regardless of the stage of the education-training process, the placement/registration of the relevant student will be immediately cancelled and a report will be made to the relevant institutions and organizations for legal action to be taken against the person.
